

'Women On The Go' Theme For City of Hope Benefit

"Women on the Go" will be the theme for the benefit fashion show being presented for the South Bay Chapter of the City of Hope on Sept. 20 at the Palos Verdes Country Club. Mrs. Herman Markowitz will co-ordinate the event.

The busy life of the modern woman constantly on "the go" to the schools, church, club, service work, employment, the arts, to market and keeping up a home and family will be depicted in the choice of fashions to be modeled.

Models from these various walks of life, all interested in helping support the National Medical Center and the research to find cure for catastrophic diseases have been chosen for their activities and appeal. They are Mrs. Audrey McNeil, president of the Palos Verdes Redondo Beach Sororist Club; Mrs. Lonnie Gorham, of the Dianas; Mrs. Don Allen, of the Liberty Village Woman's Club; Mrs. Paul Moor, of Palo Verdes Players and Mrs. Gordon Speck, of the Dolphins.

Others are Mrs. Alfred Paget, charter member of the chapter, a PEO and Shakespear club member; Mrs. Dorothy Baughman of Western Airlines and the Redondo Beach Business and Professional Woman's Club. Mrs. Elizabeth Seals, president of the B&PW club will assist Mrs. Markowitz

PTA Council Hears Ballot School Measures Discussed

Torrance Council PTA convened Aug. 28 in the reading room of the Torrance Library.

President Mrs. Francis Stockle introduced Sam Waldrup from the offices of Superintendent of Schools Dr. J. H. Hull, who enlightened the group on the impending measure to appear on the ballot Oct. 9 concerning the State Loan and Override School Tax. The State Loan will enable the building program to be expanded replacing anything not up to standard and adding to meet the needs of the present structure. The Override School tax, a separate measure, will provide for more teachers with better facilities for teaching. Mr. Waldrup stressed the need for both measures.

Two new chairmen were ratified: Mrs. M. Stimm, citizenship and Mrs. Paul Slonecker, juvenile protection. President Stockle announced that Torrance will be host to the District PTA Executive Board on Feb. 25, the meeting will be held at Torrance High School Auditorium.

Upon the acceptance of the resignation from the first vice president Mrs. William Skiles, second vice president Mrs. W. E. Inman and fourth vice president Mrs. R. E. Murphy, an election of officers was conducted to fill these vacancies. Elected were, first vice president Mrs. Eldon Morgan, second vice president Mrs. J. R. Allison, and fourth vice president Mrs. William Steinwachs. Mrs. Steinwachs resigned as auditor and was replaced by Mrs. C. S. Connors.

Parliamentarian Mrs. Glen Grimsley announced a by-law meeting Tuesday, Sept. 11, at her home. A course in procedure will be conducted soon amounting to six sessions of two hours each.

Council PTA workshops will be held Sept. 18 at the Baptist Church. Members of Torrance Council will serve in the Parent-Teacher Assn. booth at the Pomona Fair Sept. 29.

Chairman reports consisted of school education, Mrs. William Crooker reporting on a committee meeting to compile the necessary data for the Torrance Council PTA Student Scholarship. This will offer to a student in the immediate vicinity a scholarship of at least $100 a semester. A more detailed account will be released in the near future.

Parent Education chairman Mrs. Kenneth McVey plans for the year work to be started. Juvenile Protection chairman Mrs. Paul Slonecker read a portion of the proposed letter to parents concerning teenage laws. Dental Health chairman Stockle reported on the suggestions concerning care for more children on the dental program.

Meeting dates of importance to members are: Dental Health, Sept. 12; T. E. C. A., Sept. 17; Fall Conference, Sept. 20 at Beverly Hills High School; Vive-Presidents meeting, Sept. 27 at Methodist Church in Downey, Pomona Fair, Sept. 29.

October 16 the Torrance Council PTA will meet in the Torrance Elementary Auditorium. Council workshop will be held Sept. 18 at the Baptist Church.

Mrs. W. W. Jackson gave the inspirational.
